

Grades 6-8 Argument Writing Reflection

Purpose and Focus
What the standards say . . .	How I am meeting the standards. . .	Notes . . .
Orients the reader with an introduction to the topic.	<input type="checkbox"/> I created a title that gave just enough information to grab my reader's attention. <input type="checkbox"/> I introduced my topic with some background information so my reader understands why I am writing.
Establishes a purpose by stating a claim.	I stated my claim clearly so that my audience knows what type of claim I am making, e.g., <input type="checkbox"/> Fact – I am proving something is true, e.g., fast food is unhealthy <input type="checkbox"/> Value – I am sharing or establishing criteria, e.g., tacos are a healthier choice than hamburgers. <input type="checkbox"/> Policy – I want to change the way things are, e.g., schools should serve healthier foods. <input type="checkbox"/> I have avoided words like "I think," or "I feel."
Indicates an awareness of audience's needs by providing relevant contextual details.	<input type="checkbox"/> I gave my reader some details that provide a context or background and show why the topic and my claim are important.
Idea Development and Structure
Supports claim with clear reasons and relevant evidence.	<input type="checkbox"/> I used the illustrating move by using a specific example or fact from a text to support what I said. <input type="checkbox"/> I used the extending move by putting my own "spin" on ideas and terms I have taken from the text we read. <input type="checkbox"/> I used the authorizing move by quoting an expert or using the credibility or status of my source to support my claim. <input type="checkbox"/> I used the countering move by: <input type="checkbox"/> "pushing back" from the text <input type="checkbox"/> disagreeing with the text <input type="checkbox"/> challenging something the text said or interpreting it differently from the way the author did
Uses credible and sufficient sources to support the claim(s).	<input type="checkbox"/> I introduced the source of information and piece of evidence. <input type="checkbox"/> I connected the evidence to my claim. <input type="checkbox"/> I described the context or situation, e.g., what the evidence made me think about. <input type="checkbox"/> I explained the relevance of the evidence to this situation, e.g., why the evidence applies to this new situation. <input type="checkbox"/> I imagined the potential result or outcome, i.e., how things might be different. <input type="checkbox"/> I have supported my claim with: <input type="checkbox"/> Relevant sources of evidence. <input type="checkbox"/> Believable sources of evidence. <input type="checkbox"/> Sufficient sources of evidence.
Shows a clear understanding of the topic or text.	<input type="checkbox"/> Since I used more than one credible and relevant source to support my claim, I show that I have researched my topic and my reading has helped me understand the topic and form my claim.
Groups related ideas, reasons, facts, and details into sections or paragraphs that are logically ordered.	<input type="checkbox"/> I have grouped my ideas, reasons and evidence in a logical order that is easy for my reader to follow. <input type="checkbox"/> I have used one of the Bernabei Kernal Essay Organization Moves : <input type="checkbox"/> First I thought this – Then I learned this – Now I think this <input type="checkbox"/> My claim – Reason#1 – Reason#2 – Reason#3 – In the end <input type="checkbox"/> Overview of this issue - One side thinks – Another side thinks – I believe <input type="checkbox"/> My claim – How I know this – Another way I know this – Another way I know this – In the end <input type="checkbox"/> Overview of the issue – Here's what I am thinking – A question some people raise – My answer to that question – In the end

	<input type="checkbox"/> My claim – Why I believe this – However, I am still wrestling with – Which makes me think now <input type="checkbox"/> One aspect of the issue – Another aspect of the issue – Another aspect of the issue – And so my claim <input type="checkbox"/> My claim on the issue – In addition, I'll add – In addition I'll add – Refined claim
Uses a variety of transitional words, phrases and clauses to clarify the relationships among claim(s) and reasons.	<input type="checkbox"/> I have used a variety of linking words, phrases, and clauses or transitions to guide my reader through my argument.
Establishes a formal style.	<input type="checkbox"/> I show that I have given my topic a lot of thought, have arrived at my argument by looking at more than one perspective on the issue, and I am serious about my position. <input type="checkbox"/> I have written in a formal way so that my reader takes me seriously.
Provides a concluding statement or section that follows from the argument presented.	<input type="checkbox"/> I have given a satisfactory ending that sums up my argument and stresses why it is important to agree with me or consider my position on the issue.

Research

Quotes or paraphrases the data and conclusions of others accurately (with no evidence of plagiarism). Provides basic bibliographic source information, when appropriate (e.g., publishable writing piece)	I have used sources correctly and effectively when illustrating, using examples like: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> “_____ argues that _____” <input type="checkbox"/> “_____ claims that _____” <input type="checkbox"/> “_____ acknowledges that _____” <input type="checkbox"/> “_____ tells the story of _____” <input type="checkbox"/> “_____ reports that _____” <input type="checkbox"/> “_____ believes that _____” I have used sources correctly and effectively when authorizing, using examples like: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> According to Sam Jones, principal of xyz school, which encourages . . . <input type="checkbox"/> A study conducted by xyz company, a non-profit organization that. . .revealed that. . . I have used sources correctly and effectively when extending, using examples like: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Supporting my example, xyz’s research shows. . . <input type="checkbox"/> Xyz’s research confirms that _____ is a problem.
